Dear Chris:

Thank you for your letter of May 16, 1991 sharing your concerns of the many disabled by environmental sensitivities.

The Ottawa Food Bank is a central warehouse/distribution centre for 70 emergency programs operating in the National Capital Region. These programs are your best resource for emergency food assistance. I have enclosed our most recent listing of referral agencies that we rely on as reference for those who are in need of food. Each of these programs are individually run and serve various areas within the city.

Certainly the need is great for many but the real positive is knowing that with the help of organizations like yours and others help is available.

We wish you continued success with your work. You, too, make a difference.

Sincerely,

Dick Hudson
Executive Director
